

Camelot Class Homework (Term 4)

Choose one (or more) of the six homework ideas below to do as your homework for this term.

Spelling

Practice writing some of the spellings from the statutory year 5 and 6 spelling list.

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

You could try rainbow writing, type your spellings on a computer in different fonts, write a definition for each spelling, slice the spellings into syllables or make your own crossword/word search using your spellings.

English

This term in our English lessons, we are writing diary entries. Choose a significant individual or book character and create a diary entry from their perspective.

Remember, your language should be informal, in first person and in the past tense.

How many different types of punctuation and different grammatical features can you include?

Exploring a Region

It was important that expeditions were carefully planned: crew members needed to have the correct supplies and enough supplies to last the duration of the trip.

Imagine you are travelling to another area of the world for one month- create a kit list of what you will need.

Please let me know how you are getting there, how many people are with you, and most importantly, why you are taking each item!

Exploring a Region

In the past, expeditions would include a crew member who was a talented artist or photographer...

You are exploring somewhere you have never been before, create a picture of what you might expect to find there...

Book Review			Rating: ★★★★★
Book Title: _____
Author: _____
Fiction or Non-fiction: _____
What is the book about?	Who would you recommend the book to? Why?	What ages and interests is this book suitable for? Why?	Book illustration
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

Reading and book review

- Read at least 3 times a week at home and log it on Pageticker.
- Write a book review about a book you have enjoyed and would recommend to others.

- What is the book about?
- Give it a star rating!
- Who would you recommend the book to? Why?

Cooking

I really love receiving photos of your culinary creations! Surprise me, what could you make this time: a cake, a snack or help out with an everyday meal? You know the rule though... you have to tidy up after yourself!

·let your light shine·

Camelot Homework:

You can choose one activity, or you can complete more if you would like.

These homework activities are intended to be fun and as open ended as possible. Be creative and make your own decisions on how to collect, record and present your home learning.

Here are some ideas of how you might approach your chosen learning activity:

- Drawing, colouring, sketches, labelled diagrams, artwork- painting, collage, 3D constructions.
- Take photographs or even videos of your work.
- Use the internet as a resource or to present information (typed work/power point/art)
- Writing non-fiction-reports, diary, letter, leaflet, or explanation
- You can include objects, resources or references to them.

Please do not hesitate to let me know if you need any resources like paper, pens, glue, pictures printed or anything else. I hope you have fun learning, and I can't wait to see what you will achieve!

Miss Hill